Welcome to Glastonbury Abbey

Once the richest monastery in Anglo Saxon England, and second only to Westminster at the close of the Middle Ages, Glastonbury Abbey possesses a rich 1,500-year history.

Since medieval times the abbey has held legendary status as the earliest Christian foundation in Britain linked to Joseph of Arimathea. It achieved further prestige as the burial place of King Arthur and Queen Guinevere following the monks' claim to have found their bones in 1191.
